A creative and innovative graphic design associate, Lilly executes all of Baretz+Brunelle's design work from its New York office.

Whether designing white papers or producing graphics to support social media campaigns, Lilly researches and thoughtfully conceives each project at hand to best showcase B+B's clients. She is highly proficient in Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop and InDesign and is also able to design in Microsoft programs such as Word and PowerPoint. She is an effective visual communicator, thinker and problem solver who consistently works to create the best design for the task at hand.

Prior to working at Baretz+Brunelle, Lilly was the graphic design coordinator for the law firm Baker Donelson. There she produced in-house design work supporting more than 800 attorneys, 24 offices and hundreds of firm events. In 2016, Lilly conceived, designed and animated a firm holiday card that was sent to thousands of Baker Donelson's clients. Lilly has also spent time as a freelance graphic designer, creating work for various types of clients such as startup businesses, festivals, children's books and more. Born in Memphis, Tennessee, she has interned at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and continues to raise money for that charity. Lilly received her B.F.A. in graphic arts from Mississippi State University.
